Rotterdam, September 14th.

The Technical Commission of the European Championship 2012 has discussed the protest presented by the manager of the team Czech Republic after the game #34 Czech Republic – Spain on September 13th, in which he argued the misapplication of the rule 6.08 (b) in the last play of the game.

It is clear and there is no doubt that the rule 6.08 (b) is referred on a judgment decision of the umpire, and as is written in the rule 4.19 "... No protest shall ever be permitted on judgment decisions by the umpire."

Therefore, the protest presented by the manager of the team Czech Republic cannot, according to the rules, be valid and this Committee decided that the game #34 Czech Republic – Spain is officially ended with the result of 5-6. The fee of € 200,- for the protest will not be returned in accordance with the rules and are held by the CEB.

Xavier Mateu
Chairman of the TC of the European Championship 2012
